IN THE REAR-VIEW MIRROR

Our recent “Super Saturday” VBS, held in cooperation with the South Knoxville congregation, was a grand success. We registered 42 children from pre-school through the 6th Grade. The pre-school children all received a bucket of supplies, and the school-age children received a fully stocked backpack.

Several of those who attended had no direct connection with either congregation. We are in the process of visiting the homes of those who gave a Seymour address.

My personal thanks are extended to those who worked so hard to insure the success of this event. I will not name names for fear of forgetting someone, but thanks to all.

We are already talking about next year’s VBS.

THROUGH THE WINDSHIELD

Polishing the Pulpit is August 22-28. This is a wonderful opportunity to refresh, renew, and recharge. At Seymour, we are pleased to be one of the host congregations and to conduct the services at the Sevierville Events Center on Sunday.

To make the event more viable financially, some changes have been made. As members of a host congregation, we will receive a tremendous discount. If you register by August 8, the cost will only be $50.00. Otherwise, it will be $225. This can be done online at registration@polishingthepulpit.com.

As usual, there is no charge to attend the worship services on Sunday or Wednesday evening. See you there.

FAMILY MATTERS

PRAYER LIST—Kella Whitaker has asked us to remember some of her family and friends in our prayers. Her brother-in-law, Jerry Gaylord, has pneumonia. Her niece is experiencing pregnancy complications. And, her friends, Ken & Judy Cookeson, lost a son tragically. . . . Jim Husband had another shot for the pain in his back last Wednesday and was not able to attend services that evening. . . . Eric Caldwell's father's cancer has spread, and prayers are requested. Eric is a friend of Jamie Caprani. . . . Bill Nance will visit with the surgeon this week to see what treatment options are for his prostate cancer. Several have asked for Bill and Mary's addresses, and it is 12 Township Rd., 1428 West, South Point, OH 45680. . . . Chris Bragwell was not feeling well last Sunday evening and unable to attend services. . . . Bill Morrison, a member at South Knoxville, is in UT Hospital, and is having some issues with the platelet count in his blood. . . .
