WORKSHOP INFORMATION

The dates for our Teacher's Workshop—January 17-18—are just a few days away. Please allow me to give some general information about this special event.

It is a workshop, so come prepared to work. Feel free to wear casual clothes, and be sure to bring your Bible and supplies with which to take notes.

Because we have so much material to present, we will begin promptly on time. The Friday sessions begin at 7:00 p.m. and 8:00 p.m. The Saturday sessions begin at 9:00 a.m., 10:00 a.m., 11:00 a.m., 1:00 p.m., and 2:00 p.m.

If you cannot stay for the entire program, come for whatever part of it you can attend. We do recommend, however, that you make every effort to attend the whole workshop.

Each of the hour-long sessions will consist of a presentation of the scheduled material, a questions and answer session, and a short break.

The sessions we have planned will give both practical instruction and inspiration for those who are teaching and for those who might like to learn to teach. We will do our best to make everyone feel welcome, and we believe that anyone who attends will be benefited.

For the last three sessions on Saturday, my daughter, Jody, will teach special classes for the ladies.

Lunch will be provided, so be sure to sign the list in the foyer.

See you this coming Friday.

FAMILY MATTERS

At last report, the prognosis is not good. . . . Lesia Potter has asked us to pray for her.
