2015 BUDGET

Last Sunday morning, our church treasurer, Rusty Curtis, presented the 2015 budget. If you were not present and did not get a copy, please let Rusty know.

The new budget is challenging. The amount needed each week is $1,558.95. Though that is a stretch for us, it is within our means. But, it will require sacrificial giving on the part of each of us.

Although the new budget has been presented, I understand that people do not give to budgets. They give to causes, and the cause before us is the greatest.

We are the church of Jesus Christ. Our mission is to fulfill His mission. Our cause is His cause.

We maintain a building so that we can worship and fellowship together as His people. We have Bible classes so that we can teach children and adults about Him. We buy materials, maintain a website, have a preacher, offer Bible Correspondence Courses, etc. so that we can inform people about the One who can save their souls. We have a food pantry and do other benevolent work so that we can demonstrate the love of Jesus for those who are less fortunate.

We do not give to a budget. Our money does not just go into a plate and then into the bank. We give so that the cause of Jesus can grow and flourish in Seymour and beyond.

I like the sound of that. How about you?
