MEET OUR SPEAKER

Sam Bartrug was born, and grew up, in Burton, WV, which is near Hundred in Wetzel County. He has two brothers (one of whom is also a gospel preacher) and four sisters.

Sam grew up in the church in Hundred. The greatest spiritual influence on his life growing up was his Aunt Bess, whom he credits with his being a preacher today.

After graduation from high school, he attended Ohio Valley College in Parkersburg, WV, where he met and later married Martha Yost. Sam and Marty are the parents of two daughters and one son. They also have three grandchildren.

In addition to his Baccalaureate Degree from OVC, Sam has done graduate work at Southern Christian University (now Amridge University).

Sam has been located with churches in West Virginia, Ohio, and Maryland. The Bartrugs now live in McConnelsville, OH, where Sam preaches and serves as an elder for the 7th Street congregation. Marty is a public school teacher.

The Bartrugs and Millers have been friends for some forty years. We are happy to have them with us in Seymour for a few days and to share them with you.

Sam is an excellent preacher. His lessons will be easy to understand and will be presented in a kind and loving way.

I urge you to be present for every service as we learn more about "God's Amazing Grace."
