I AM GUILTY

Yes, I am guilty. I take things for granted. I often don't express my appreciation. How about you?

I'm talking specifically about things at church. Here are just a few examples of what I have in mind.

The building is opened, lights and equipment are turned on, and the building is secured when services are over. Who does that? Volunteers.

The Lord's table is spread each week. Who does that? Volunteers.

Colorful, attractive, informative bulletin boards are prepared. Who does that? Volunteers.

Bible classes are taught for all ages, from cradle roll through adults. Who does that? Volunteers.

In the services, prayers and songs are led, the Lord's Supper is served and the collection is taken. Who does that? Volunteers.

When supplies—paper cups, toilet tissue, paper towels, etc.—are needed, they are purchased and distributed. Who does that? Volunteers.

After everything is done, the trash is collected and set out. Who does that? Volunteers.

The list goes on and on, but you get the idea. Don't take things for granted. Thank our volunteers, and why not decide to become one yourself?

FAMILY MATTERS

PRAYER LIST—Jim Husband is scheduled to have a nerve block in his back on January 10. Please keep him in your prayers. . . . Heather Fleenor is doing better now, but she still has pain and difficulty getting around due to her broken ankle. . . . It seems to be the time of year when a number of people are ill, as the figures below reflect. Last Wednesday evening Tom & Sierra Miller, Melissa McBroom and Matt Hopper were all ill and not able to be at services. . . . Dorothy Strattis will be traveling over Thanksgiving, as will others. Please pray that all will be kept safe.

STATS FOR LAST WEEK—Bible Study, 31; Morning Worship, 44; Evening Worship, 41; Contribution, $1,065. Wednesday Evening Bible Study, 26.

PANTRY ITEMS—The pantry items for this week are peanut butter crackers (the individually wrapped packs) and tuna kits (the Lunch to Go kits).

TEACHER'S COMMITTEE—The following people have been selected to serve on a Teacher's Committee, which will help give direction to our program at Seymour. Deone LaFollette will be the coordinator for the Pre-School Department. Trish Curtis will have this roll for the Primary Department. Chris Bragwell will help coordinate the Teen/College Age Department. Tom Miller will serve as the coordinator for the Adult Department. Of course, our elders are the overseers of all the work, and they will have the final word on what is done in regard to our educational program. If you cannot teach a class for some reason, or if you have items needed for your classroom, please let the appropriate coordinator know. Let's all work together to have a great educational program at Seymour.

Please be as generous as possible. Also, the sermon for the evening service will be devoted to “Questions & Answers.” If you have a question to be considered, submit it as soon as possible.
