CHURCH BULLETINS

Many preachers consider the preparation of a church bulletin the bane of their responsibilities. I do not. Call me crazy, but I actually enjoy the writing and publishing of the bulletin.

In this article, I want to tell you some of my plans for this weekly publication. These plans, of course, are subject to change, as we get settled in and learn the desires and needs of the congregation.

The front page will identify the publication and have some eye catching piece of clip art or some important announcement.

Page 2 will be “my” page. I like to write a weekly article. Sometimes they are worth reading, and sometimes they may not be. But, I see this as a way to stay in touch and to talk about things I think are important.

Page 3 will be our announcement page. I want us to stay informed regarding those who need to be remembered in prayer, activities for this congregation and in the area, as well as any number of other things. I will need your help with this. Please be sure to keep me informed. My crystal ball doesn’t always work well, and I may not know about a person or activity. My sermon topics and the scripture text I will use will also appear at the bottom of this page.

The back page will contain information about those who serve, how to contact us, and the times of our services.

The bulletin will not be mistake free. But, I ask for your patience and cooperation, as I strive to publish a bulletin that will be attractive, interesting, and informative.

FAMILY MATTERS

PRAYER LIST—Robert Smith, Wayne Smith’s father, is doing some better but is awaiting a second opinion. . . . Joyce McCulley, one of Trish Curtis’ co-workers’ mother-in-law, is seriously ill and has been given a short time to live. . . . Bob Johnson had two stints put in and the procedure went well. . . . Jo Ann Haven, a friend of the Lamberts, is in Hospice in Columbia, TN. . . Nina and Telisha Blevins have visited with us several times. Telisha is currently in UT Medical Center in serious condition. . . . Also, please keep John and Dot Fitch in your prayers.

THANK YOU—Sierra and I want to thank all of those who helped with the move from Ohio to Tennessee and the many acts of kindness during this transition. We look forward to our working together for the cause of Christ in this area. . . . Also, thanks to the teens for painting the church office. Great job! . . . Finally, thanks to all those who helped with Polishing the Pulpit. The largest crowds ever attended this wonderful event. I’m looking forward to next year. How about you?

NEW TEACHERS’ WORK ROOM—A work room has been established in the far end of the building. The copier and laminator are now both in this room. The key is located in the pulpit in the back of the worship area.
