IN LIFE, YOU HAVE

3 CHOICES

GIVE UP, GIVE IN, OR

GIVE IT YOUR ALL!

FAMILY

Family! I like the sound of that word; don't you? Being near the most of our children and grandchildren again is one of the things that brought us back to East Tennessee.

At Seymour, we have found a wonderful Christian family with which to work and worship. The sign over our membership picture board says, "We Are Part of a Family," and indeed we are! We feel that here, and we are thankful to be among you.

When we think about family, we usually think of the blessings we enjoy, and there are many of them .

Blessings, however, always come with responsibilities. They may not be as pleasant to think about, but they are just as important.

Consider the following responsibilities.

- We should love one another with the love of Christ (John 13:34-35).
- We should always look out for one another's welfare and good (Phil. 4:3-4).
- We should rally to one another's aid in any time of need (Gal. 6:10).
- We should encourage one another (Hebrews 10:24).
- We should work together for the benefit of the whole family (Eph. 4:16).

We are family! Let's enjoy the blessings and fulfill the responsibilities of this precious relationship.
