HONORING OUR TEACHERS

My daughter, Jody, recently posted a note on Facebook about the joys of being a Bible class teacher. One of “her kids” (as she calls them) has grown up to be a fine young man and is entering the Air Force.

She wrote, “One of the greatest blessings of being a Bible Class teacher is having the opportunity to see “your kids” grow and blossom from those youngsters that you taught into young men and women that are ready to go out into the world and serve the Lord in their own way. You know you had some small part in helping to make them what they are today. What a tremendous blessing! “

I want our teachers at Seymour to know that we do not take what you do for granted. You are dedicated and talented. You influence those in your classes for good. You help make them better people.

To let you know how much we appreciate you, a Teachers’ Banquet is scheduled for Saturday, May 16. Some of our guys will be preparing barbeque and all the trimmings. The banquet is free and open to all. A sign-up sheet will be posted soon, so we will know how many to expect.

Sunday, May 17, will be our Education Sunday. Again, we will take the opportunity to honor our teachers and let the congregation know how important our Educational Program is. We also plan to have parents visit their children’s classroom(s) to see where they meet to study and view some of their handiwork.

Mark it down now—May 16,17.
