FAMILY MATTERS

PRAYER LIST—Gwen Erwin, Melissa McBroom’s mother, is out of the hospital and in her home in Nashville. She is under hospice care at this time. Please keep her, as well as Melissa, in your prayers. . . . Chris Bragwell has requested prayers for a co-worker, John Gehringer, who had an emergency quintuple heart bypass last week. He is in Park West Hospital. . . . We are sorry to announce that Alfred McKee, Lesia Potter’s father, passed away last Thursday morning. Services were yesterday at Nelson Chapel Church of Christ in Blount County. Our condolences to the family.

LAST WEEK’S STATISTICS THAT SHOW OUR DEVOTION—Due to the fact that we had those who met here and those who met at Polishing the Pulpit last week, we have no accurate count.

CLASS PROMOTIONS—Class changes (promotions) will take place on the first Sunday in the new quarter, which is September 6.

A special day to celebrate our service in the Seymour community is being planned for Saturday, October 17. Details will be forthcoming. One of the things we plan to do, however, is have our annual coat give-away and a grocery give-away on this same day. Darlene Adams, who is in charge of the food pantry, has asked us to begin to bring the following items:

- |                           |                   |
|---------------------------|-------------------|
| Boxes of Tuna Helper      | Boxes of crackers |
| Peanut Butter             | Bags of rice      |
| Boxes of Instant Potatoes | Cans of Spam      |
| Boxes of Mac and Cheese   | Boxes of Bisquick |

Coats (children’s sizes and larger sizes for adults) are also needed.
