A Year of Encouragement

Our plan for this new year is that it be a year of encouragement. Hopefully, we will all learn to be encouragers, like Barnabas was (Acts 5:32-37). Additionally, I trust that we will all learn how better to gracefully receive encouragement.

The particular areas we will work on this year are as follows:

January—Encouragement

February—Love

March—Faithfulness

April—Sacrifice

May—Peace

June—Longsuffering

July—Liberty

August—Kindness

September—Self-Control

October—Courage

November—Thanksgiving

December—Forgiveness

If you forget these, there is a large banner in the foyer that has them listed. It will serve as a constant reminder of our theme.

Through sermons and bulletin articles, I plan to emphasize these areas each month. I would also encourage our song leaders and those who do Wednesday evening devotionals to consider the theme for the month.

“And let us consider one another in order to stir up love and good works? (Heb. 10:24).
