But seek first His kingdom and His righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

This year's Vacation Bible School will be Saturday, July 25. It is a cooperative effort of this congregation and the South Knoxville congregation and will be held at the South Knoxville church building located at 4604 Chapman Highway.

Registration begins at 8:30 a.m. It is suggested that pre-registration be done on line at VBS@skcoc.org. This will help make things run more smoothly on the morning of the 25th.

The theme for the day will be “Nothing Is Too Hard for God!” This theme is based on the familiar Old Testament story of David and Goliath.

There will be activities for preschool through adults. These include Bible stories, games, crafts, singing, and puppets. Lunch will also be served.

For high school thru adults, there will be a special class on bullying, which is a very current topic. It will be taught by Adam Willson, a deacon at South Knoxville and an officer with the Knoxville Police Department.

School aged children who stay all day will receive a backpack filled with school supplies.

Please plan to attend this exciting day filled with lots of fun, fellowship, food, and learning. Invite your friends and neighbors to come with you, too.

FAMILY MATTERS

PRAYER LIST—Please keep John & Dot Fitch in your thoughts and prayers. John is growing weaker and weaker. . . . Jody Miller had the staples from her surgery removed last Wednesday and is doing well. . . . Lavern Mullins' brother, Wendell Bentley, has been ill, and she has requested prayers for him. . . . Dorothy Strattis' cousin, Darlene Quesenbury, has been in the hospital recently. . . . Kathy Martin, who is a friend of one of Kella Whitaker's friends, lost everything in the recent flooding in Missouri. Kella has asked us to remember her in prayer. Also, the elders have decided to have a special contribution today to help her and others who have lost so much in the flooding. Separate checks should be written and noted for this cause.

STATS FOR LAST WEEK—Bible Study, 37; Morning Worship, 60; Evening Worship, 34; Contribution, $1,506. Wednesday Evening Bible Study, 43.

POLISHING THE PULPIT—PTP is just around the corner. The dates are August 21-27. As a host congregation, our members can attend all sessions by paying 30% of the $199 "early bird" fee, or $59.70. To receive this discount, members must register on line and use the discount code hostchurch15, and the deadline to receive this discount is July 15. There is no charge for attending the Sunday services or the Wednesday evening services. As usual, Seymour will be in charge of the Sunday morning services.

"God does not want
a few shares of your life,
He wants controlling interest."
