ENDURANCE

The Christian race is not a sprint but a grueling marathon which requires endurance. All too often, people begin this race but do not finish it. We need to remember that the prize is always given at the end of the race and not at the beginning.

Listen as the Scriptures speak in this regard.

“. . . Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life” (Rev. 2:10).

“But he who endures to the end shall be saved” (Matt. 24:13).

“Indeed we count them blessed who endure . . .” (Jas. 4:11).

“Therefore we also, since we are surrounded by so great a crowd of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily ensnares us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith . . .” (Heb. 12:1-2).

The old adage that “winners never quit and quitters never win” is true in regard to the Christian race, too.

A knowledge that endurance is necessary to salvation, and a strong confidence in the assistance of God, will help us finish successfully “the race that is set before us”.

FAMILY MATTERS

PRAYER LIST—Please continue to keep Dot Fitch in your prayers as she continues to grieve and deal with John’s death. . . . We are thankful that Wayne Smith’s dad, Robert, was able to go home from the hospital. . . . Don’t forget to pray for Lavern Mullins’ brother, Wendell Bentley, who has been having heart trouble and is awaiting an appointment to see what will be done going forward. . . . Walter Jones is now in Morningview Transitional Center in Maryville, room 203. He is there for rehab, trying to get his strength back. . . Linda Hopper has not been feeling well recently and was unable to attend services last Sunday. . . . Herman Spurgeon, a friend of G.W. Robinson’s, has received a bad prognosis concerning his cancer, and Gurney has requested prayers for him. . . . Ken Stephens is having problems with his blood pressure and is experiencing dizziness. . . Lesia Potter has asked us to remember her sister, Elaine Young, who had stints put in last Thursday. . . . We are glad to report that Butch Potter received a good report at Vanderbilt last week. . . . Samantha Kinzalow requests prayers for a cousin, Randall McTaggart, who lives in Maryville and is seriously ill.

LAST WEEK’S STATISTICS THAT SHOW OUR DEVOTION—Sunday Bible Study, 51; Morning Worship, 57; Evening Worship 52; Contribution, $1,304; Wednesday Bible Study, 47.

PTP will be August 21-27. Seymour is one of the host congregations and will be in charge of the Sunday morning services. There is no charge for attending the Sunday or Wednesday evening services. There is a charge, however, for attending the other sessions. This is a wonderful opportunity to hear a number of wonderful speakers and to enjoy some really great fellowship.
