THE PRIVILEGE OF INTERCESSORY PRAYER

This past week, I have been impressed once again with the wonderful privilege we have to pray for one another. James 5:16 instructs us to “pray for one another” when trespasses are involved. Of course, this is not the only time we practice intercessory prayer. Sometimes it is just for the fears, problems, and life situations we face regularly. “Therefore I exhort first of all that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks be made for all men” (1 Tim. 2:1).

Last Sunday morning was a powerful reminder of varied reasons we pray for one another. Kella Whitaker came forward asking for prayers for her sister, Beatrice Sue Laney, who is gravely ill and for her brother-in-law, Eugene Laney, who was facing surgery. One of our elders, Rusty Curtis, talked with her and led the congregation in prayer.

Darrell Whitaker also responded to the invitation to rededicate his life to the Lord. This was itself an answer to many prayers. Another of our elders, John McBroom, talked with him and led the congregation in prayer for Darrell’s forgiveness and faithfulness.

Then that evening, Jama Sergent responded to the invitation to ask for prayers that she might be able to accept God’s forgiveness and to be faithful to him. Again, Rusty Curtis, the elder in charge this month, talked with her and led the congregation in prayer.

On Wednesday evening, Jamie Caprini responded to the invitation to ask prayers for herself, as she works two jobs and struggles with all that is on her plate this summer. Prayer was led that God would be with and strengthen His precious child, Jamie.

How blessed we are at Seymour to have the kind of atmosphere that encourages people to seek the prayers of the church. Let us continue to pray fervently for one another.

FAMILY MATTERS

PRAYER LIST—Lesia Potter visited the ER last weekend for swelling in her feet and legs. She was able to attend services last Sunday evening. Please continue to pray for her. . . . Kella Whitaker’s brother-in-law, Eugene Laney, came through his surgery well and is at home now. . . . Kella’s sister, Beatrice Sue Laney, continues to be gravely ill. She needs surgery but cannot have it until her pneumonia is cleared up. . . . Alice Graves has not been feeling well recently. . . . Our sympathy is extended to Nina Blevins at the passing of her daughter, Darlene Stephens. She lived in Illinois and had cancer. . . . We also extend our sympathy to the family of Janice Gibbs who recently lost a son unexpectedly Janice is a cousin to Trish Curtis.
