Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful.

CYC REPORT

Last weekend, 28 of our young people and chaperones joined with some 12,500 others to be a part of the Challenge Youth Conference in Pigeon Forge. They came back Sunday afternoon more than a bit sleep deprived, but otherwise thrilled with all they experienced.

I thought you might want to know some of the comments made by our young people.

“What I liked best about CYC is that I made new friends.”

“The speakers and lessons were amazing.” (Said by nearly everyone.)

“I learned that we shouldn’t let the storms of life bring us down, because God will bring us through them.”

“My favorite part was getting to realize that I’m not the only one with struggles, and I’m not going through the storms alone. That gave me a sense of peace and reassurance.”

“I would especially like to thank all the adults who made this weekend possible.”

“It was the best time I’ve had in a while. I’ve grown spiritually.”

“I learned that God gets everything right.”

“Seymour church of Christ rocks.” (That’s a real compliment from a young person.)

One of the adults added, “Every time I attend something like this, I am privileged to see so many individuals who also follow and love God. This reinforces that fact that God is working all over the face of His creation and not just here in Seymour.”

Everyone who commented expressed their appreciation for the funds which were given to rent the cabin, pay the fees, and buy the food.

We are blessed with wonderful young folks at Seymour. And, we are blessed with those who will gladly give the funds so that opportunities like this can be taken advantage of.

FAMILY MATTERS

PRAYER LIST—Jim Husband and Genova Lambert were both under the weather last weekend and unable to attend services. . . . John McBroom has asked us to remember his aunt, Belinda Lewis. She was just recently restored to the church after several years of being away from the Lord. Also, she is facing breast cancer. . . . Walter Jones fell last Sunday breaking two ribs and his arm. He is presently in Asbury Place Rehab, room 312. . . . It is with sadness that we announce the death of Barbara Husband's aunt, Vera Grimes. She passed away last Sunday morning and her funeral was last Wednesday. Please continue to keep this family in your prayers. . . . Also, we are saddened by the death of Jackie Taylor, who is Trish Curtis' cousin. He was tragically killed in an accident at a car racetrack last weekend. . . . Tim Wheeler asks us to remember the family of his great aunt, Jane Clayton, who passed away last Thursday.
