A BUSY MONTH

It seems we just get busier and busier at Seymour. That is not a bad thing. It shows we are alive and active.

Let me remind you of some of many things going on this month.

- ✓ I am away this week for my last Gospel Meeting of the Spring. It is in Monroe County Ohio with the Laings congregation. Phil Adams will be speaking here, and we are thankful for his willingness to fill in. I will be away on Sunday morning, May 24, also.
- ✓ Next Sunday is Mother's Day. Let's take advantage of the opportunity to honor our mothers in whatever ways are appropriate. My sermon on that day will be "In Praise of Christian Women."
- ✓ Our Teacher's Banquet will be Saturday, May 16, beginning at 6 p.m. John McBroom and Jason LaFollette are preparing barbeque and chicken. It will be yummy. Remember it is free and open to all, but we do need for you to sign the list in the hall.
- ✓ The following Sunday, May 17, will be our Education Sunday. We will continue to draw attention to our Bible School Program and to honor our teachers. The sermon for that morning will be "Ed-u-ca-tion."
- ✓ Following services on Sunday evening, May 24, we will have a Reception for our Graduates. Our graduates are David Bragwell (Seymour High School), Jamie Caprani (Walters State), and Erin Robinson (Heritage High School).

you are always on God's mind.

How precious are Your thoughts about me, O God.
They cannot be numbered! They outnumber the grains of sand! And when I wake up, You are still with me.

Psalm 139:17-18
