BEGINNING OUR THIRD YEAR TOGETHER

I began preaching full-time the first Sunday in September, 1965 for the Elkins, WV church of Christ.. I had preached for two years before that, while a student at Ohio Valley College in Parkersburg, WV. This means that I have now been preaching for some 52 years.

The first Sunday in September of 2013, Sierra and I moved to Seymour, and I began working with this congregation. Today, then, marks the beginning of our third year together.

In many ways, these past two years have been a whirlwind of activities, and we have experienced many “firsts” together. We must be sure to give God the glory for any growth. We have done our part, but any success is His doing. I believe strongly that His hand has been, and continues to be, on this work.

In what I sometimes refer to as our “dotage,” Sierra and I realize we have landed in a good place, and we are thankful. We both feel accepted, loved, and wanted by you. And, I assure you those feelings are not unreciprocated. We love you all dearly.

Only time, our effectiveness, and our health, will determine how long we will continue to work together. But, for the near future, I am your preacher and you are my congregation (I say that out of a sense of relationship and not ownership), and I look forward with excitement to our third year and my fifty-third year of preaching.
