I'm Proud of Our Youth Group

I'm really proud of our youth group. They have blossomed under the leadership of Will & Jamie Curtis, and some others as well.

One of the things they have been involved in is the Hands & Feet Ministry at South Knoxville. This past week, we received a very nice note from J.L. Steele, who heads that program.

I thought you might like to read it.

"The Hands & Feet Ministry group from South Knoxville thanks everyone at Seymour for your support, prayers, and manpower over the recent months. Your youth group in particular is a special group of hard workers. We invite any and all of you to come see what we do and to be a part of it every Saturday morning. Thanks again, and may God bless the Seymour congregation."

Way to go, youth group. May your example inspire others of us, who are older, to be actively involved in helping people in Jesus' name.

P.S. If you don't know, the Hands & Feet Ministry gives out clothing, personal items, and food to the people in the South Knoxville area who are homeless or are living in extreme poverty. They strive to be Jesus' hands and feet.

FAMILY MATTERS

PRAYER LIST— It was so good to see Jeff Whitaker at services last Sunday morning. He is doing well following his recent stroke. Please continue to pray for him, Lynn, and Natalie. . . . Jim Husband continues to need our prayers, as he deals with his cancer. He and Barbara worship with us via our livestream. . . . Donna Lane had her knee surgery last Tuesday. She is dealing with pain and swelling but is doing well. . . . Jeff Cronin had a flareup of his diverticulitis last week, coupled with a sinus infection. . . . The Flores' have requested prayers for a friend in West Virginia, Jerry Allen, who has cancer. The good news is that both he and his wife were baptized last Sunday. . . . Chris Bragwell's dad, Jim Bragwell, is to have surgery for a double hernia soon. He is waiting for a date to be set. . . . Tristan Wheeler injured his ankle playing basketball and was on crutches last Wednesday night. We wish him well.
