The Lord is my light and my salvation; Whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life; Of whom shall I be afraid?

CHANGES

The early church met each Lord's Day to observe the Lord's Supper (Acts 20:7), give as they had been prospered (1 Cor. 16:1-2), sing songs to praise God and teach and admonish one another (Eph. 5:19), and study and pray together (Acts 2:42). We should do the same. It is also clear that they met on other occasions to worship and fellowship together.

Traditionally, we meet three times a week—Sunday mornings, Sunday evenings, and Wednesday evenings. We encourage our members to attend all of those services, and rightfully so. God deserves our praise and being together is beneficial for us all.

We tend to conduct those services in a certain way. We joke about two songs, a prayer, and another song before the sermon. The truth is that we have no biblical information as to the exact way these services are to be conducted, other than that we are to conduct them in a decent and orderly way (1 Cor. 14:40).

It makes sense that we would conduct our services in a way that is beneficial to all and satisfactory to as many as possible. Therefore, we are making some changes to our Sunday evening and Wednesday evening services,

On Sunday evenings, we will conduct our regular evening worship from 6:00 p.m. to approximately 6:45 p.m. Following the service, we will have two classes offered. Patty Adair will teach a sign language class in the multi-purpose room, and our elders will conduct a class in the auditorium that will focus on the material presented in the evening sermon. These classes will end at 7:15 p.m.

Our Wednesday evening service will revert to classes for all ages and will not be live-streamed. The classes will be from 7:00 p.m. till 7:40 p.m., with a devotional to follow. Presently, I am teaching an adult class on The Providence of God.
