THERE IS PRAYER IN THE PLAN

A recent biopsy revealed that the lump in Sierra's breast is invasive ductal carcinoma. That is not the result we wanted, but it is the one with which we must deal.

Last Monday, we consulted with one of the leading breast surgeons in the Knoxville area. Sierra and I were accompanied by two of our daughters and a niece.

The doctor took plenty of time explaining everything to us, even writing it on a white board. When he was done, his nurse took a picture of the board and gave copies to everyone. He wanted to make sure that we fully understood the situation.

The last thing he put on the board was a plan for going forward. There were eight things under that heading. The first one was "Prayer." Wow!

I leaned over to my daughter Jody and whispered, "There's a bulletin article in there." She said, "Yes, and the title should be, 'There is prayer in the plan.'"

I was impressed with the fact that the doctor believed the first thing we should do is pray. That is always the case, isn't it?

Take it to the Lord. Seek His will. Ask His blessings. Leave it with Him. Trust Him.

We intend to do exactly that. We ask you to join us.

"Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your request be made known to God, and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus" (Phil. 4:6-7).
