I'M SORRY, AND THANK YOU

I am genuinely sorry that I was not able to be at services and preach last Sunday evening. I have been battling an infection for the past month, and it finally got the better of me. I am now on my third round of antibiotics and doing better.

The Question & Answer period will be this evening, Lord willing. I say, "Lord willing," because I had every intention of answering the questions you had submitted last Sunday evening.

I am thankful that Rusty Curtis was able to step in on short notice and preach for me. From all the reports, he did a great job, and his lesson was well received. I am not surprised. We are blessed to have so many talented people at Seymour.

OUR ANNIVERSARY

Next Sunday, Sierra and I will celebrate our 30th Wedding Anniversary. That lady deserves a medal! She has been a true blessing to me.

But, that is not the anniversary I have in mind just here. Five years ago today, she and I began our work with this wonderful congregation. Where has the time gone?

We cannot thank you enough for your acceptance of us, the support you have given us in every way, and your love. We believe the Lord has blessed our work together, and we look forward to how ever many years He will give us.

My prayer is that He will bless our 6th year together and that it will be our best yet—for His glory and honor.
