SUNDAY SERVICE Christmas Day

As it does periodically, Christmas falls on a Sunday this year. Because of the travel that is often involved and the tradition of being with family and friends during Christmas, our elders have decided that we will only have one service at 10 a.m. on Sunday, December 25.

This does not mean that worshipping God on Christmas Day is not important, for we will certainly do that. We will take time to sing songs that praise God and admonish one another, pray to our Father in heaven in the name of Jesus, surround the Lord's Table in memory of Jesus' death, give as we have been prospered, and study from God's Word—things that we do every Sunday.

If you are in town, please join us. If you have guests, bring them along. If you are out-of-town, be sure to take time to worship with a good congregation of the Lord's people.

Let's be sure that we don't leave the impression that Christmas dinner is more important than the Lord's Supper, that family time with our physical family is more important than spending time with our Christian family, or that giving some brightly wrapped gifts to one another is more important than giving honor and praise to our Heavenly Father and His Son, Jesus Christ.
