ONE WORD

Next Sunday morning in our adult auditorium class, we will begin using the “One Word” material published by the Mt. Juliet, TN congregation.

This material, which we plan to use for the entire year, focuses on one important word each week. The word for January 6 is WORD. That is a fitting word with which to begin this study, isn't it?

To help people prepare for this class, as well as to encourage family Bible study, we are providing one of the “One Word” books to each family. If you have not received your copy, please let me know.

The words and teachers for January are as follows:

January 6—WORD, Tom Miller

January 13—CREATION, Rusty Curtis

January 20—SIN, Jeff Cronin

January 27—WRATH, Brian Lane

Here's what we're asking you to do. During the week leading up to the Sunday when a specific word will be discussed, read the five daily devotionals in the book supplied to you. Those daily devotionals will provide a wonderful time of study and meditation for you and your family. Furthermore, they will help you be prepared to join in the discussion of the word under consideration in the Sunday morning class.

I look forward to seeing you next Sunday morning at 9:00 a.m. to consider the word WORD.
