SPECIAL SUNDAY January 20, 2019

Next Sunday will be a special day in the history of this congregation. On that day, as planned now, Brian Lane will be installed as an elder for the congregation, and Kenny Brown and Tim Wheeler will be installed as deacons.

The process began some time ago with sermons and classes about these two important works in the local congregation. Then, the congregation was asked to submit the names of those who were thought to be qualified to serve.

Our current elders, Rusty Curtis and John McBroom, considered every recommendation. Some were mentioned by one or two people, but did not have the necessary support in the congregation. Others, for personal reasons, indicated that they did not want to be considered.

Last Sunday, the names mentioned at the beginning of this article were set before the congregation. If anyone has a Scriptural objection to any of these men being appointed, this is the time to let that objection be made known in writing to our current elders.

If no such objection are received and/or sustained, these three men will be appointed next Sunday. Please be in prayer for these men and for this process.

To help us celebrate this red-letter day, a covered dish dinner is planned following the morning service.
