MAY I NEVER FORGET ON MY BEST DAY,
THAT I STILL NEED GOD AS DESPERATELY
AS I DID ON MY WORST.

Person to Person . . .

FOUR VIEWS OF MARK 16:16

An unknown author has given us the following four views of Mark 16:16. Amazing, isn't it? How can a passage that is so plain and simple be misunderstood by so many?

THE UNIVERSALIST SAYS: "He that believeth not and is not baptized shall be saved." All are going to be saved anyway.

THE ROMAN CATHOLIC SAYS: "He that believeth not and is baptized shall be saved." Whether it be a newborn baby or an adult at the point of death, the "sacrament" of baptism has validity to take away sins no matter what.

THE PROTESTANT SAYS: "He that believeth and is not baptized shall be saved." Salvation is by faith only, without baptism or anything else.

THE LORD SAID: "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; he that believeth not shall be damned."

Which of these versions of this important passage should we accept?

I believe I'll just stick with what Jesus said.
