Person to Person . . .

Tom Miller

There was a snake that crawled over a sharp saw and was cut. In anger, the snake wrapped the saw with its thick body and proceeded to squeeze the life out of the saw.

With each angry squeeze, it felt more pain, but continued because it wasn't going to let the saw get away with the pain it caused. The snake, refusing to let go of the saw, eventually died; not knowing the whole time that he needed to let go of the initial pain and focus on the future and where he was going. Instead, the snake unfortunately lost its life and didn't even see it coming.

Control your anger, forgive those who hurt you, and don't give people or things power over you. It can ultimately kill you.

FAMILY MATTERS

PRAYER LIST—Chris Wentworth spent a couple of days at Blount Memorial last week with severe dehydration. . . . Gene Caprani has not been feeling well recently. On a good note, it looks like Gene’s work in North Carolina may be finished soon and that he will be returning home. . . . John Miller fell and broke his hip recently. He is not doing well and is in palliative care. . . . Marie Caprani had oral surgery last Wednesday, and we pray for a good outcome. . . . Tim Wheeler requests prayers for his sister, Betsy Gipson, who is in Park West. She is having kidney failure, and may require dialysis. . . . Lesia Potter asks us to remember her daughter, Amanda Muniz, in our prayers. She is in the LeConte Medical Center with cardiac problems. . . . The Lanes ask us to remember the family of Bill Shoffner in our prayers. Mr. Shoffner is Crystal Hurst’s father and is in the last stages of cancer. . . . Jody Miller and Lynn Whitaker both felt badly last Wednesday and were not able to attend Bible Study. . . . Betty Summers, Lynn Whitaker’s mother, was hospitalized last Sunday and is not doing well.

FOR THE RECORD—Sunday Bible Study, 35; Morning Worship, 64; Evening Worship, 38; Contribution, $3042; Wednesday Bible Study, 28.

MARK IT DOWN—There will be a work day at the church building on Saturday, June 26, beginning at 10 a.m. There is lots of work to be done and all volunteers are needed.

GUEST SPEAKER NEXT SUNDAY—Tom, Sierra, and Jody are leaving for a two-week vacation Thursday, June 17. The guest speaker for Sunday morning, June 20, will be Greg Wanderman, Director of Development at SEIBS.
