

Seymour Sayings

The Weekly Bulletin of the

Seymour Church of Christ

Meeting at 269 Business Park Lane

June 5, 2022

Worrying is like sitting in a rocking chair. It gives you something to do but it doesn't get you anywhere.

MISTEAKS

In last week's article, I said that Memorial Day was the first Monday in May. That is, of course, incorrect. It is the last Monday in May and has been since 1971.

My thanks to those who caught the mistake and pointed it out to me. It shows that some are reading these articles.

It reminds me of the story about a preacher who made a mistake in the bulletin years ago. One of the staunch members of the congregation, had passed away. He printed in the bulletin, "Brother Jones has gone home to roost."

When his mistake was pointed out, the next week he wrote, "Brother Jones has gone home to roast."

Sometimes you just can't get anything right. Of course, "Brother Jones has gone home to rest."

We all make mistakes, don't we? Some are laughable and maybe a bit embarrassing. Some are serious and some not so much.

I can't resist the opportunity to say how happy we should be that God has a plan to forgive us of our big mistakes or sins. As non-Christians, we must repent and be baptized for the remission of our sins (Acts 2:38). As Christians, we must repent and confess our sins, asking for forgiveness (Acts 8:22; 1 John 1:9).

And, yes, I do know the title of this article is misspelled. I'm just checking to see who's reading.

FAMILY MATTERS

PRAYER LIST— Jim Husband returned to the hospital last week. He was coughing up blood and was very weak. Please continue to keep him and Barbara in your prayers. . . . Randall Potter had back surgery last Tuesday and is doing very well. . . . We are thankful that several we have had on our prayer list recently are much improved. Continued prayers, however, are requested for Mary Coats (Suzanne Cronin's aunt), Steve McKee (Leisa Potter's brother), Claudia Hutchinson and Melissa Holcombe (Pam Neal's mother and daughter). . . . Donna Lane continues to have pain with her knee and will be having physical therapy.
