The Bible

This book contains the mind of God, the state of man, the way of salvation, and the doom of sinners. Its doctrines are holy, its precepts are binding, its histories are true, and its decisions immutable.

Read it to be wise, believe it to be saved, and practice it to be holy. It contains light to direct you, food to support you, and comfort to cheer you.

It is the traveler's map, the pilgrim's staff, the pilot's compass, the soldier's sword, and the Christian's character.

Here paradise is restored, Heaven is opened, and the gates of Hell disclosed. Christ is its grand object, our good its design, and the glory of God its end.

It should fill the memory, rule the heart, and guide the feet. Read it slowly, frequently, and prayerfully.

It is a mind of wealth, a paradise of glory, and a river of pleasure. It is given to you in life, will be opened in judgment, and will be remembered forever.

It involves the highest responsibility, rewards the greatest labor, and condemns all who trifle with its holy contents.

“According as His divine power has given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him that hath called us to glory and virtue” (2 Peter 1:3).

Finally, the fourth monkey!
He is the sum of the other three.
He sees nothing, hears nobody,
and speaks to no one.
