GOOD THINGS HAPPENING

Good things are continuing to happen at Seymour, and we are thankful and give God the glory.

Last Sunday, Wayne Claxton placed his membership with us. Several of us have known Wayne for some time and have found him to be a fine, faithful Christian brother. He most recently worshipped with the Wooddale congregation. His address is 929 Wildacres Way, Knoxville 37920. His birthday is March 9. You may contact him by phone at 865-385-0823 or email him at waynebow65@gmail.com.

Welcome to Seymour, Wayne. We look forward to worshipping and working together with you.

Ricky Spears did some painting in the parking lot and Chris Sergent helped with putting LED lights in the class rooms. Thanks to both.

A good number stayed after services last Sunday evening to make plans for our upcoming Learning from Loss Workshop scheduled for June 9-11.

The “volunteer spirit” is very much alive and well at Seymour.

FAMILY MATTERS

PRAYER LIST—Jessica Spears requests prayers for Don Burchfield, the husband of a co-worker, who had double bypass heart surgery last Monday. . . . Prayers were requested for Joanne Ferrell, the grandmother of one of our young men, who has cancer. . . . Please keep Christina Ogle in your prayers. She lost her mother recently and has been in St. Louis taking care of matters there. She and Dail express their appreciation for the cards and prayers they received. . . . Tom Miller requests prayers for his sister, Alice Carsey, who had her second major back surgery last Wednesday. She is doing well considering the severity of the surgery. . . . Mary Roark has Covid. Prayers, please. . . . Samantha Kinzalow responded to the invitation last Wednesday evening. She asked for forgiveness for the hurt she had caused some and for strength to carry through on getting her life turned around/ Our continued prayers are with her.
