THE DAY OF SMALL THINGS

“For who has despised the day of small things” (Zech 4:10)?

Many of the people wept when they saw the foundation of the temple laid by Zerubbabel. They could remember the opulence and glory of the first temple. This small beginning just didn't impress them.

Could it be that we get so wrapped up in big, flashy things that we forget the small things?

Let me ask us all a few penetrating questions about some “small things” that make a big difference. How long has it been since you/I . . .

- Took the time to so see someone who is shut-in?
- Wrote a card or sent an email to someone who crossed your mind?
- Encouraged someone who is having a hard time living the Christian life?
- Prayed earnestly for someone who is struggling with life's problems?
- Informed your family of your love and appreciation for them?
- Told a young person that you are proud of their efforts to live for Jesus?
- Gave an honest compliment to someone who is leading in the worship in some capacity?
- Tried to have a Bible study with someone who is not a Christian?
