WE REJOICE

Daven Hodges was baptized into Christ last Sunday morning, following the CYC group's return to Seymour. Daven had attended the Christian Youth Conference and reached the conclusion that he should give his life to Jesus and be baptized for the remission of sins.

Tim Wheeler, one of the chaperones for the weekend, had the privilege of baptizing Daven.

Daven is one of Sharon Simpson's grandsons. His birthday is July 19, and his address is 4759 Green Street, Maryville, TN 37804. The phone number is 253-3847.

God continues to bless, and we continue to rejoice.

FAMILY MATTERS

PRAYER LIST—The Lanes request prayers for their daughter-in-law, Lydia Lane. Her grandfather, Bobby Shultz, is now in hospice care, and an uncle passed away recently. . . . Chris Wentworth had a PET scan last week to determine the spread of her cancer. She does not have the results yet. . . . Please be sure to keep Sharon Simpson in your prayers, as she battles her cancer. . . .

Our hearts are hurting due to the devastation and loss of life caused by the recent tornadoes in the Nashville and Cookeville area. Natalie Alshiak Ali had two of her co-workers, Laure Shaver and Marie Webb affected by the tragedy, and a cousin of Donna Lane's, Michelle Taylor, had a co-worker killed. Several members of churches of Christ in the Cookeville area were affected by the tornadoes, including at least four who lost their lives. Prayers, please!
