John 19:26-27

Person to Person . . .

Tom Miller

I AM BLESSED

Writing to his son in the faith, Paul penned these words: “When I call to remembrance the genuine faith that is in you, which dwelt first in your grandmother, Lois, and your mother, Eunice, and I am persuaded is in you also” (2 Tim. 2:5).

Timothy was indeed a blessed son. He had been trained properly by his mother and grandmother. Later in 2 Timothy, Paul would add, “And that from childhood you have known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus” (2 Tim. 3:15).

I, too, am a blessed son. I fondly remember my mother, Betty, and my grandmother, Alice, and the wonderful influence they had on me. They loved me, cared for me, taught me, prayed for me, and encouraged me. I have also been taught the Holy Scriptures from childhood. I owe so much to the wonderful women who have helped shape my life in such a positive way.

Any son or daughter is truly blessed who has had such a positive influence in his/her life. Many of you reading these words can say, “I am also blessed,” and you can recall the specific women in your life who have meant so much to you. If these women are still living, use this Mother’s Day to thank them in some special way. If they are not still living, honor their memory today and always.

One way we can honor those who have blessed our lives is to bless the lives of others.

FAMILY MATTERS

PRAYER LIST—Lesia Potter requests prayers for her daughter, Amanda Muniz, who had two procedures last Thursday and for her sister-in-law, who just found that she has lung cancer. . . . Claire Foister had an eye injury a few days ago, but thankfully—after some bed rest and prayers—she is doing very well. . . . Samantha Kinzalow requests prayers for a friend, Misty Dawn, who has a grandson, Quinn, in Vanderbilt in stable but critical condition. . . . Kella Whitaker asks us to remember a co-worker’s husband, Wade Harden, who is having heart issues and is probably facing open heart surgery. . . . It was nice to see Julianna Gregory and Sierra Miller able to be at services last week, after being home-bound for so long.
