I WAS GLAD WHEN THEY SAID UNTO ME,
"LET US GO TO
THE HOUSE OF
THE LORD!"

BULLETINS AGAIN

Several people have requested that we begin publishing a weekly bulletin again, and I am glad to do that.

The last bulletin published was more than a year ago on March 22, 2020. Thankfully, I still have the template used for this purpose.

I do have some requests to make .

First, be sure to read the bulletin. I don't mind the work involved in publishing a bulletin, but I do expect it to be read. Men, check to see if you are on the list to lead in the services. Everyone, be sure to read the prayer list and announcements on page 3. Let's pray for those who request us to do so, and let's do our best to stay informed. You might even find something worth reading on this page from time-to-time.

Second, please submit announcements for the bulletin in a timely manner. I try to prepare the bulletin on Thursday, so that I send it to Rusty Curtis for posting on Friday. Both Rusty and I ask you to be patient with us, if we don't get it prepared and posted as soon as you think we should. In addition to it being posted on our website (seymourcoc.org), you can get a hard copy each Sunday.

Third, don't leave the bulletin behind for someone else to dispose of. We don't have a regular or paid custodian. So, if you leave the bulletin on the floor, stuffed in a book rack, or in your seat, someone else must pick it up and dispose of it. Let's all do our part to help keep our building clean and presentable.

FAMILY MATTERS

PRAYER LIST—Tammy Bragwell just learned that her mother, June Deaver, now has brain cancer. No other details are available, but prayers are requested. . . . John McBroom has not been feeling well recently. Please keep him in your prayers. . . . Suzanne Cronin requests prayers for a family friend, Melanie Townsend, who has been diagnosed with a rare sarcoma on her brain. She is the sister of Jeremy Puckett, who died last month from colon cancer. . . . The Wheeler family requests prayers for Debbie Christopher, who has Covid and COPD. Debbie’s daughter and Timmy Wheeler are good friends. . . . Be sure to keep the following people on your prayer list, too: Chris Wentworth, Barbara Russell, Velva Perry, Paul Sharp, and Tommy & Genova Lambert.

EVENING SERVICES—Sunday services will be divided into two parts. The first 30 minutes will be for announcements, prayer, singing, and a short sermon. The second 30 minutes will be to discuss the subject matter set forth in the sermon. Tonight’s focus will be on Ephesians 6:10-12. Question sheets for the discussion part of the service will be provided.

ELDERS AND DEACONS MEETING—The meeting originally scheduled for last Tuesday evening has been rescheduled for Tuesday, May 25, at 7 p.m.

MARRIAGE WORKSHOP—The West End congregation will host a “Finding Happily Forever After” workshop, conducted by Wayne & Tami Roberts, May 21-22. A flyer is posted on the hall bulletin board.

SUNDAY MORNING ADULT CLASS—Beginning next Sunday, Brian Lane will teach the Sunday morning class on the book of Hebrews.
