THE ANGELS REJOICE AND SO DO WE

Last Sunday was a wonderful day. We learned that after talking with our elders Gene & Marie Caprani desired to be members of this congregation and to work with us. If you haven't made the connection, they are Jamie Curtis' and Shelby Capani's parents.

At the evening service, Jama Sergent responded to the invitation and asked for the prayers of the church that she might be a faithful Christian.

Then, Lesia Potter was baptized by Brian Lane. She was unsatisfied with her former baptism and wanted to make sure she understood the design and purpose of baptism.

In addition, as a surprise to almost everyone, including her dad, Katie Cronin responded to the invitation. Jeff had the privilege and thrill of baptizing her into Christ. We congratulate this wonderful family.

FAMILY MATTERS

PRAYER LIST—John McBroom spent a couple of days in Blount Memorial last week to receive oxygen and IV antibiotics. Please keep him in your prayers. . . . Donna Lane requests prayers for her brother, Terry Taylor. Terry has diabetes and had surgery on his foot. . . . Chris Wentworth asks us to pray that her insurance will approve the new chemotherapy protocol that her doctor wants her to have. . . . In a recent email, Debra McKee reported that both she and Roger have some health issues and would appreciate our prayers. At the present time, they do not have transportation and are unable to get out. . . . Lesia Potter requests prayers for her cousin, Randall McTaggart, who will be having heart surgery later this month.
