THE LITTLE THINGS

Ephesians 5:20 says, “giving thanks always for all things to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.”

Yes, we are to give thanks to God for all things. He is the giver of “every good and perfect gift” (Jas. 1:17).

Surely we are thankful for the “big things.” For instance, I am thankful for being an American and living in this beautiful country. I am thankful for being a Christian, knowing forgiveness, and sharing my life with other Christians. I am thankful for my family and the love we share together.

But, what about the other things, the small things, the ordinary things? Do we just take them for granted?

What about a beautiful sunset? What about a warm, comfortable bed in which to sleep? What about sufficient food and clothing? What about a compliment or an unexpected courtesy? What about an encouraging word or a hand reached out to help?

Perhaps we could debate the difference between the “big things” and the “little things”, but I’m sure you get the point. There are some things we believe are worthy of our thanksgiving, and there are others that just slip through the cracks.

As I stress the importance of being thankful this month, I encourage us all to count our blessings and to be thankful, even for the little things.

FAMILY MATTERS

PRAYER LIST—Bella Wheeler was sick this past week. . . . John McBroom has not been feeling well recently. . . . Jackson Igou, a young man from the Kingston congregation we have been praying for, is still hospitalized but is out of the ICU and making some progress. . . . Please continue to remember Butch Potter, Paul Sharp, Velva Perry, Pam Neal, Barbara Russell, and Nina Blevins in your prayers. . . . Natalie Whitaker responded to the invitation last Sunday morning to request the prayers of her church family, as she goes through a very difficult period in her life.

CONDOLENCES—Barbara Husband’s aunt, Edith Delk, passed away last week. Funeral services were on Thursday in Columbia.
