It's Over, But Should It Be?

The parade has passed. The football games have been played. The meal has been eaten. Family members have gone home.

Thanksgiving is over, but should it be?

I have tried this month in the bulletin, through the Sunday announcement slides, and in the sermons to remind us all to be more thankful—not for just one day but always.

John E. Anderson wrote:

When Thanksgiving day is over
Do we give up giving thanks?
Forget what God has done for us
And rejoin the worldly ranks?

Is Thanksgiving just a holiday?
No work and too much food
Which helps to change our waistline,
But not our attitude?

Or does it serve its purpose
To remind us of what God's done,
How He gave us life and substance;
How He gave us His dear Son?

FAMILY MATTERS

PRAYER LIST—Bob Adair, Suzanne Cronin, and Davean Brown have tested positive for Covid and are self-quarantining at home. Be sure to keep them, and their families, in your prayers. . . Sierra Miller is home from Ohio but has a bad case of bronchitis. . . . Lesia Potter requests our prayers. She had a couple of tests recently that will require further attention. Please keep her in your prayers. . . . Lynn Whitaker responded to the invitation Sunday morning to ask for the prayers of her church family. Lynn struggles with constant pain, which makes it so easy to become discouraged. Please keep her in your prayers.

FOR THE RECORD—Sunday Bible Study, 41; Morning Worship, 61 + 8; Evening Worship, 38 + 5; Contribution, $2,280; Wednesday Bible Study, No Service. (The + numbers show the number of people joining us by live stream.)

GOOD WARM CLOTHING NEEDED—Jamie Curtis is collecting lightly worn, warm, clean clothing for those who are discharged from the hospital and do not have suitable clothes to go home in. She has cleared this with her supervisor and it is an opportunity for us to serve the needy in Jesus name.

Saturday, Dec. 18, 6 p.m.—Ladies' Christmas & Ornament Exchange @ the church building.

CONGRATULATIONS—Ivy Sage Lusk was born last Tuesday and weighed 6.5 pounds. The proud parents are Emmerie and Tucker Lusk, and the equally proud grandparents are Tim and Kim Wheeler.

“The thankful heart opens our eyes to a multitude of blessings that continually surround us.”

James E. Faust
