“And Be Thankful”

Colossians 3:15b

Fall is my favorite time of the year. You don't have to agree, but I personally like the cooler weather, and I especially enjoy the turning of the leaves.

I also like November, because my favorite holiday, is Thanksgiving. It's not just the family gatherings, the scrumptious meal, or even the parades and football games that I like, although I do enjoy all of them.

It is that we are reminded how blessed we are and the importance of expressing our thankfulness. This is so much in keeping with Scripture (Col. 3:15b).

Thanksgiving should be a daily practice and not reserved for just one day on the calendar. I'm going to do all that I can to help that idea along. Each Sunday morning sermon this month will deal with things for which we should be thankful.

Here's the list.

7th—“I Am Thankful For Forgiveness”

14th—“I Am Thankful For The Church”

21st—“I Am Thankful For God's Abiding Presence”

28th— “I Am Thankful For The Hope Of Heaven”

I encourage you to be present for each of these sermons, and let's all look for opportunities to express our thanksgiving—to one another and especially to God.
