You can't go back
and change the beginning,
but you can start where you are and change the ending.

A KNOCK AT THE DOOR

Just a few days ago, as I was working in the church office, I heard a knock at the outside door. I keep that door locked so as not to be surprised by someone walking into the office while I am working at my computer with my back turned.

When I went to the door, I saw a man I did not recognize. To be truthful, I thought he might be there to ask for some kind of assistance. But, that was not the case.

He handed me a sheet of paper which contained a poem he had written. He explained that he was retired, he liked to write, and he was just visiting area churches to leave them some of his writings.

We had quite a nice chat, and I must say that I was impressed with him on two different counts.

First, he spoke openly of his faith and of his desire to be used by God for whatever good he might accomplish through his writings. He even quoted “The Great Commission,” and said he wanted to do his part in fulfilling it.

Second, he said his writings could be used in anyway that would glorify God, and that he didn’t want any personal recognition.

He said he would bring some other writings by, and I am looking forward to another talk with him. As he walked away, I thought that I needed to share that experience with you and use it to encourage all of us to be as open, proactive, and humble as he was.

FAMILY MATTERS

PRAYER LIST— Jeff Cronin had hip-replacement surgery last Thursday and did well. Please pray that he will have a complete and speedy recovery. . . . Jeff’s mother, Doris Cronin, is to have surgery at UT on November 14. . . . Brian Lane’s dad, Thomas Lane, was at the ER this past week with what was thought at first to be a stroke. The diagnosis was Bell’s Palsy. . . . Jeff Whitaker’s mother, Ann Whitaker, recently had biopsies on her lymph nodes. No report was available at the writing of this bulletin. . . . Skyler Dixon responded to the invitation last Wednesday evening to request prayers that he might be a stronger Christian. Please pray for this fine young man. . . . Our sympathy is extended to the family of Brittney Whaley, who was killed in a tragic automobile accident last weekend. . . . Also, we extend our sympathy to the family and friends of Kane Watson, who passed away last weekend. He was a good friend of Isaac, Ian, and Isaiah Atkins. . . . We also ask you to continue praying for Velva Perry, Chris Wentworth, Bud Sharp (Paul Sharp’s brother who is struggling with cancer), Paul Kirkpatrick (Kenny Brown’s former preacher from his home congregation in North Carolina), and Mary Nance (Bill Nance’s wife who lives in southern Ohio).

FOR THE RECORD—Sunday Bible Study, 52; Morning Worship, 68; Evening Worship, 52; Contribution, $1,842; Wednesday Bible Study, 45.

ATTENTION, LADIES—If you are interested in resuming the monthly Ladies’ Devotional, please let Melissa McBroom know.

*“A word to the wise is sufficient.
A word to the unwise is resented.”*
