Never be a prisoner of your past, it was just a lesson not a life sentence.

The Difference Between Men and Boys

Ben Meredith and I have been friends since Jr. High School. We graduated together in the class of '62 at Ceredo-Kenova High School in Kenova, WV.

Bennie married his high school sweetheart, Carolyn Perkins, and they are still happily married today.

The Merediths are active member of the First Baptist Church in Kenova. While we would disagree about some religious matters, he and I are both men of faith who are concerned about the direction our society is going.

Recently Bennie reposed the following piece.

Here's to all the real men out there. Boys play house, men build homes. Boys shack up, men get married. Boys make babies, men raise children. A boy won't raise his own children, a man will raise his and someone else's. Boys invent excuses for failure, men produce strategies for success. Boys look for someone else to take care of them, men look for someone to take care of. Boys seek popularity, men earn respect by knowing how to give it. Boys quit and walk away when things get hard, men will promise to love you through it all.

I can only say, "Amen!"

I'm reminded that Paul wrote, "Be watchful, stand firm in the faith, act like men, be strong. Let all you do be done in love" (1 Cor. 16:13-14 ESV).
