*The most powerful prayer
we can pray is "Father, may
YOUR Will be done and not my own."*

Luke 22:42

Person to Person . . .

Tom Miller

HOW DID YOU LIKE THE SERMON?

This is a familiar question. By what guidelines do we determine a good sermon? I suggest a sermon is successful if ...

- 1. It is spoken so it can be understood.*
- 2. It is true to God's Word.*
- 3. It is preached in love.*
- 4. It is prepared to meet a need.*
- 5. It glorified God.*
- 6. It challenges people to think.*

Sermons are to be measured not by approval and pleasure of people, but by their response in holy living, Godly actions, and true Christian dedication.

Sermons are preached not to be liked but to be lived. The question in the heart of the faithful minister is, "What does God want?"

Paul's admonition is still true: "If I were trying to win human approval, I should never be Christ's servant" (Gal. 1:10).

As a preacher, I knew I would devote much of my time to teaching and motivating sinners to become Christians. What I didn't know is that I would have to spend a lot of time teaching and motivating Christians to get out of bed on Sunday mornings.
