AND YOU FATHERS

“And you fathers, do not provoke your children to wrath, but bring them up in the training and admonition of the Lord” (Eph. 6:4).

Fathers and mother alike should see the need of teaching their children important life lessons. Even at my age, I remember, and have been benefited through the years by things my mother and father taught me.

Fathers often think they should teach their children, especially their sons, “manly things.” And, it is certainly important for our sons to be taught what it means to be a man, a true gentleman. Unfortunately, matters relating to the soul are often left to the mothers, and that should not be so.

According to Paul, fathers should bring their sons and daughters up “in the training and admonition of the Lord.” We do that by both words and actions.

I don’t know the source of the information on the front of this week’s bulletin, but I believe it is accurate and much needed. Go back and look at it again. Fathers matter!

Fathers, step up. Be the leader, the spiritual leader, in your family. Set the right kind of example. Show your sons and daughters how important it is to be a Christian man or woman. Eternity may hang in the balance.
