THE BEGINNING OF A NEW YEAR

It was on the first Sunday of August 2013 that I became the preacher for the Seymour church of Christ. Last Sunday marked the beginning of our fifth year, but since Sierra and I were on vacation then, I will say some things about this milestone in my article this week.

As I think back over the past four years, we have come a long way. We have had our disappointments and losses, but we have also had some wonderful successes and gains.

There are a number of things that Sierra and I are both thankful for. That lists includes your acceptance of us, your love, your prayers, your encouragement, your cooperation, your support—and even your good natured kidding.

I cannot predict the future regarding our ministry with the Seymour church, but I hope to be your preacher as long as health allows—and, of course, as long as you want me to.

One thing I can say is that this fifth year has the potential of being our best year yet. Good things are happening, and enthusiasm seems to be at an all-time high.

Let's do all we can, but let's also be quick to give God all the glory for any growth we experience.

So, forward together!
