LET US PRAY

When we stop to think about it, there are so many people for whom we should be praying. In my column for this week, I am suggesting that we pray for our school teachers and students.

It's that time of the year. School is resuming, and we all have our fears and concerns.

Violence in the classroom or on the school grounds is always a concern. The statistics indicate that the Delta variant of the corona virus is on the increase and that is worrisome.

We can't help but wonder what this school year will be like and if our teachers and students will be safe.

While we are debating gun control, in person classes versus online classes, vaccines versus no vaccines, and masks versus no masks, may I suggest we take time to pray? Let's take our fears and concerns to our Heavenly Father.

We are blessed to have several school teachers (grade school through college) and support staff who are members at Seymour. Be sure to mention Tammy Bragwell, Marie Caprani, Suzanne Cronin, Julianna Gregory, Cathy Kridner, Jody Miller, and Kim Wheeler in your prayers.

This does not preclude our praying for others (nurses, first responders, etc.), but at this particular time it is a reminder to pray for all teachers and students.

FAMILY MATTERS

PRAYER LIST—Chris Wentworth is in Morning View in Maryville for respite care. Please continue to pray for her. . . . Jim Husband will have shoulder surgery on August 18. . . . Lesia Potter requests prayers for her daughter, Amanda Muniz, who is having health problems. She also asks us to pray for her friend, Ann, who is having heart issues. . . . Chris & Tammy Bragwell have sent a “Thank You” note for prayers and sympathy at Tammy’s mother’s death. . . . Bob Huff is home from the hospital but remains in hospice care. . . . Kenny Brown requests prayers for the family of Steve Martin, a former elder for the Warners Chapel congregation (Kenny’s “home” congregation), who passed away last week. . . . Tammy Bragwell injured her back after returning from her mother’s funeral in Texas and was not able to attend services last weekend.
