SERVING OTHERS

Our focus this year is on being better servants. Jesus was a servant (Matt. 10:28), and our goal is to follow His example more closely in 2017.

Saturday a week ago, three of our young men (Alex Robinson, JC McBroom, and Damon Hall), along with some of their friends, served the homeless population of Knoxville. They went on the home turf of these folks (on Broadway under the bridge) and gave out warm clothing and hot food. Alex told me they fed approximately 100 people. He also said they were already planning to do this again next year.

What a wonderful example for us all.

Keelie Whitaker will be going to Florida with her sophomore class from Kings Academy February 17-March 3. While in St. Augustine, they will be working with the Feeding Northeast Florida Foodbank. Darrell and Kella will also be going with the group as well.

Another great example.

In addition, three of our young people (Joseph Wheeler, Emerie Wheeler, and Nate LaFollette) will be going with the Latin America Mission group to San Marcos, Nicaragua July 21-29. This work is under the oversight of the Forrest Park congregation in Valdosta. To help with the $2,000 that each one of these folks will need, give your check to our treasurer, Rusty Curtis.

Still another wonderful example for us.

Of course, others are serving, too, but our young people are certainly setting a good example before us. I thank God for them. Let's all be looking for opportunities to serve in Jesus' name.

FAMILY MATTERS

PRAYER LIST—Samantha Kinzalow had an appointment with a surgeon last Thursday to determine a date for her surgery. Be sure to pray for her. . . . Don Agricola has been taken back to Vanderbilt with a new infection. To help keep Don encouraged, Denise asks that we send him a card. The address to use is P.O. Box 1676, Gatlinburg, TN 37738. Their daughter will pick them up and take them to Don. . . . Chris Bragwell updated us on the status of his co-workers 16-year-old daughter, Amanda Russell, who has cancer. She had surgery this past week in Huston and will have treatments to follow. . . . Jamie Caprani requests prayers for the mother of one of the managers where she works. The manager's name is Lisa Faye, and her mother is hospitalized with heart failure. Lynn Whitaker is having considerable trouble with her foot healing following her surgery. The doctor has required her to stay off of it for a longer period than expected. We miss her.
