We love and appreciate our teachers for the dedication and love they exhibit in teaching their classes. They are examples of that “volunteer spirit” which permeates this congregation. You may note that some of them are first-timers in our program at Seymour, although they may have taught before coming here.

FAMILY MATTERS

PRAYER LIST—Samantha Kinzalow is doing well following her thyroid surgery. . . . Bill Morrison had a stressful week (chemo, a short stay in ICU) but was to be released from the hospital this past Friday. Please continue to keep him in your prayers. . . . Richard Hawkins (Kathy Crider’s father) is doing fairly well following his recent surgery, and Kathy asks us to continue to pray for him. . . . Lesia Potter requests prayers for her brother, Roger McKee, who has heart trouble. . . . Lynn Whitaker returned to work last week. We pray she will continue to improve. . . . Tom & Sierra’s grandson, Luke Halstead, had surgery twice last week for a flesh eating bacterial problem. Thankfully, he is doing better. . . . Davean Brown was not feeling well last Wednesday evening. . . . Continued prayers are requested for the Cawood family. Mr. Cawood is Suzanne Cronin’s brother. . . . We are glad to report that Don Agricola is doing some better. His strength is improving and more chemotherapy is planned. Don and Denise remain at Vanderbilt in Nashville. . . . Jama Sergent responded to the invitation last Wednesday evening to request prayers that she might learn to forgive herself of past mistakes. Please include her in your daily prayers.

LAST WEEK’S STATISTICS THAT SHOW OUR DEVOTION—Bible Study, 37; Morning Worship, 52; Evening Worship, 46; Contribution, $1,494; Wednesday Bible Study, nc.

EDITORIAL NOTE—I appreciate so many things about the Seymour congregation, and one of them is the wonderful volunteer spirit that is found here. People often ask, “What can I do?” Or, they simply say, “Put me to work.” Jeff Cronin is one of those who stepped up and out last Wednesday evening. He presented his first devotional, and it was wonderful. Thanks, Jeff. Keep on growing and serving. And, by the way, Darrell Whitaker is scheduled to present his first devotional on March 29. He volunteered and said, “I think I’m ready.” I think he is, too. God bless these men and others who volunteer to use their talents for the benefit of the Lord and His congregation in Seymour.
