But God demonstrates

His own

LOVE

for us in this:

While we were still sinners,

CHRIST

died for us.

Romans 5:8

Person to Person . . .

A NEW PRESIDENT

We have a new president. Many are pleased, others are not. But, like it or not, Donald J. Trump is now the forty-fifth president of these United States of America.

What should our attitude and actions be going forward?

In regard to our attitude, we should accept the process and honor the office of president. Writing to the Romans, Paul said, “Render therefore to all their due: taxes to whom taxes are due, customs to whom customs, fear to whom fear, honor to whom honor” (Rom. 13:7). These words were written in the context of our attitude toward governmental authorities.

I want him to be an honorable man and a great leader, but whether he is or not, I will honor the office he holds. I will be careful how I speak about him. He is our president.

In regard to our actions, we should pray for him.. The Bible speaks to that, too. “Therefore I exhort first of all that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks be made for all men, for kings and all who are in authority, that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and reverence” (1 Tim. 2:1-2).

Mr. Trump deserves and needs my prayers—as well as yours. Let’s be sure to lift him, those who serve with him, and this country up in our prayers.

I want President Trump to succeed; don’t you? As someone explained it, “wanting him to fail is like wanting the pilot to crash the plane that we are all on.”

Will you join me in respecting Donald J. Trump as our president and praying for him fervently and regularly?
