Super Saturday

Our one-day VBS, also known as Super Saturday, is just around the corner. The date is July 22.

The theme this year is “Would You Be My Neighbor?” As you might guess, this is a study of the Parable of the Good Samaritan found in Luke 10:25-37.

There will be Bible classes, skits, singing, games, crafts, and lots of fun and learning. Lunch will also be served.

This VBS is especially for those who are Age 3—Grade 7. There will also be a general class in the auditorium for those who are high school age and above, which includes any adults who may be present. It will be taught by John McBroom.

Registration begins at 8:30 a.m., and the activities will conclude at 1:00 p.m.

Flyers are available in the foyer, and we are asking you to take one or more and personally invite children you know to attend. I know some are planning to pick up children in their neighbor and bring them to VBS.

To make sure that we are ready for this big day, there will be an important meeting this afternoon at 5:00 p.m. Everyone involved in VBS is encouraged to attend.

FAMILY MATTERS

PRAYER LIST—Barbara Russell requests prayers for her great-grandson, Canaan Ridge Glenn, who was born June 28. He had some breathing problems and was in Children’s Hospital at last report. . . . Betty Summers had the pins taken out of her wrist last Wednesday and thankfully is doing quite well. . . . Butch Potter is doing better after spending some time in the ER last weekend. Lesia asks that we pray for him to regain his strength. . . . Lesia Potter’s nephew, Jeremiah Henry, passed away last week, and prayers are requested for the family. . . . Suzanne Cronin learned last Wednesday night that her aunt, Mary Coats, is in ICU at St. Thomas Hospital in Nashville. She has a leaky heart valve and has been having mini strokes. The Coats are members of the Hillsboro congregation in Nashville.
