SUMMER VACATION

It's that time again—time for summer vacations. Most of us need and enjoy some vacation time each year.

Vacations allow us to travel and see the wonders of God's creation. They may allow us to see our loved ones. They provide a little time away from the ordinary grind of everyday living.

Here are some things we should keep in mind as we travel this summer.

1. BE SURE TO ATTEND CHURCH WHILE AWAY ON VACATION. Don't take a vacation from church. If you need help finding a congregation to attend, just let me know. I have resources that give locations and other information about congregation in every state.
2. DON'T FORGET YOUR HOME CONGREGATION WHILE YOU ARE TRAVELING. The church is relying on your contribution even while you are away. The bills still have to be paid.
3. TAKE ADVANTAGE OF EVERY OPPORTUNITY THE SUMMER PROVIDES FOR YOU TO LEARN AND GROW. Take note of how other congregations serve the Lord. There may be new approaches and ideas you can bring back to Seymour. Remember that we are not the only congregation of the Lord's people. We have brothers and sisters in Christ most anywhere you will travel who love and serve the Lord just as we do.

Have a great summer. Enjoy your vacation. And, be sure to keep in mind how richly God has blessed us and that we must be loyal to him in every season.
