THANK YOU

Recently we have received emails or notes from people expressing their appreciation for things we have done. We do not serve to be thanked, but it is nice to know that people appreciate the things we do.

I pass the following on to you.

After receiving her “care package,” Erin Thomas wrote: “Happy, happy Monday to me! I am so thankful to have a church family that continues to support me even when I am miles away. Love you all so much.”

Likewise, Katelynn Sugalski wrote: “I want to thank the church for the wonderful care package! . . . This move has been pretty rough, especially with not knowing anyone, and this church has been so amazing at helping us feel wanted and helped us to really feel at home. And it really meant a lot to me to know that I was thought about. Thank you very much.”

A recent card from Denise and Leanne Agricola said: “Thank you everybody at Seymour Church of Christ for the flowers, the dinner, the renewing of our vows, and the baptism of my husband, also for all the help since the fire. We could not have done it without you all.”

Dear ones, let’s continue to serve in Jesus’ name. Let’s as Scripture commands, “do good to all, especially to those who are of the household of faith” (Gal. 6:10).

It’s just encouraging to know that people appreciate our efforts.

FAMILY MATTERS

PRAYER LIST—Jama Sargent responded to the invitation last Sunday morning to request prayers that she might have the strength she needs to live the Christian life before others. . . . Sierra Miller was sick last weekend. . . . Kenny Brown was in North Carolina last week to visit his mother, Clem Seats, who had surgery. . . . John McBroom is scheduled for surgery at Blount Memorial this coming Tuesday. Please pray that all will go well. . . . Bill Morrison was finally able to receive his chemotherapy, but his health remains very fragile. . . . Please continue to pray for Denise Agricola, Genova Lambert, Norma Miller, Barb Gilaspie, and Richard Hawkins.

LAST WEEK'S STATISTICS THAT SHOW OUR DEVOTION—Bible Study, 37; Morning Worship, 51; Contribution, $1,890; Evening Worship, 34; Wednesday Bible Study, 52.

There will be a very important VBS planning meeting this afternoon at 5:00 p.m. If you can help this year in any way, please be present. Some things beyond our control have happened, and we must make some decisions now.
