When Thanksgiving Day is over,
Do we give up giving thanks;
Forget what God has done for us
And rejoin the worldly ranks?

Is Thanksgiving just a holiday,
No work and too much food;
Which helps to change our waistline,
But not our attitude?

Or does it serve its purpose,
To remind us what God's done;
How He gave us life and substance,
How He gave us His dear Son?

PLAYING FOR TEAM JESUS

Joshua Dobbs was the quarterback for the University of Tennessee football team 2013-2016. He graduated with a degree in aerospace engineering. Since turning pro, he has played briefly for several different teams.

Presently, he is with the Minnesota Vikings and is doing quite well.

It is not his ability as a football player that impresses me as much as it is his character. Recently, he opened up about his Christian faith. He said, "I truly learned what it meant to be a Christian, what it meant to have my faith as a priority when I got to college." He continued, "If church is going to be a priority, if faith is to be a priority, I have to make it a priority. I have to go get involved in a church. I have to be present, be willing, be involved."

I don't know anything about Dobb's personal doctrinal beliefs, but I can't help but be impressed by those sentiments. They sound like they might have come from the pulpit on a Sunday morning.

In speaking about the most important day of his life, he said, "That's the day I got baptized and went public with the decision of shedding my old life and putting on the new and starting a relationship with Jesus Christ. The day will come that I won't be a part of any football team. But the decision I made during my sophomore year in high school — to be a part of Team Jesus — I'll be a part of that team for the rest of my life, and for all eternity."

Go, Josh Dobbs. You inspire us. Play well for the Vikings, but always play best for Team Jesus.
