AREA-WIDE YOUTH DEVOTIONAL

Seymour is hosting the Area-Wide Youth Devotional next Sunday. This is both a privilege and a responsibility. We should be thankful that young people in our area have the opportunity to get together to eat, enjoy one another's company, and then to worship together. The activities will begin at 3:30 p.m.

Tim Wheeler is asking for pots of chili, cornbread, 2 liters of soda, and deserts from each family. Last year when we hosted this program, we had about 100 young people here, and many of them stayed for the evening service.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

You may be interested in knowing that our own Timmy Wheeler will speak at the devotional and Tim Wheeler will lead the singing in the evening service. My, how those young people can sing!

Lifelines Grief Discussion Group
Today at 4:30 p.m.
Informal and open to all.

FAMILY MATTERS

PRAYER LIST—Lesia Potter expressed her appreciation for the prayers, cards, and basket from the Ladies' Class. She asks for continued prayers for her and Butch . . . Jody Miller spent last Wednesday in the ER at the UT Medical Center with blood clots in both lungs. After several tests, she was sent home with medicine that should dissolve them over time. . . .

Yolanda Flores had shots in her hips last week to help with the pain she has, which makes it difficult for her to walk. . . . Please keep George and Lucy Benjamin on your prayer list. Lucy is not yet able to be out. . . . Gary and Helen Graves continue to not feel well. . . . We are sorry to report that Butch and Lesia Potter had some fire damage to their home last week. They are in a hotel in Sevierville that the insurance has provided for them. We will give further information as we know it.
